Gettysburg, Tuesday, Nov. 14, 1893

As we emerge from under the debr county, we are astounded at the genera character of the same results all over the country. The disastrous results are not local, but general to a remarkable extent Counties in this State having heretofore Democratic majorities from 2,000 down lican. have leaned to the Republican column. So upon comparison with other counties we can congratulate ourselves upon saybor, Cumberland, which has always been solidly Democratic, and gave Mr. Cleve- ward T. Bartlett for associate judge of the land 1,000 majority last fall, has lost its entire ticket by majorities ranging from 250 to 350. York has reduced her majority of 3,000 of last fall to 650 and los her cambidate for Prothonotary by 300 Bucks, Cambria, Elk, Eric, Fayette, Fulton, Juniata, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Montgomery, Montour, Schuylkill and Wayne have all been considered safely anchored in the Democratic list, but this fall they go over to the enemy by safe majorities. In 1892 Cambria gave 300 Democratic, it now gives 1,000 Republi can: Erie gave 44 Democratic in 1892. now gives 2,700 Republican; Juniata gave 125 Democratic in 1892, now gives 2,000 Republican; Luzerne gave 1,813 Democratic in 1892, now gives 100 Republican, and so on. It will thus be readily seen we have cause to congratulate ourselves upon saving as much of our ticket as we have. The people have spoken at the polls and their admonition will not fall upon deaf ears. It is indeed fortunate that the warning has come at this time, for it will do the party no harm but good. The causes were not local, but national.

The causes were not local, but national.

"Those who can recall the political history of the past thirty years must have observed how often the Democrats have observed how often the Democrats have won in off-year elections that did not signify anything, and brought no results. They would forthwith begin to talk of what they were going to do the next year, or two years, or three years after; but when the important time came around, their opponents, warned by defeat, had reformed their lines and marched forward triumphantly.

"The Republican party has had many a deserved whipping within this period. It has lost many an off year election through the popular resentment against just such abuses and crimes, in policy or The chief interest throughout Pennsyl.

through the popular resentment against just such abuses and crimes, in policy or leadership, as the people have now so emphatically rebuked in New York and New Jersey. The American people have a way of disciplining parties thus.

"Fortunate is the party that gets its discipline at a favorable season. And certainly no time could be more favorable than the present for the Democrats to learn the lessons of defeat, when the party is in possession of the Executive and both hou es of Congress, and when, in the only two states in which it has been deprived of power, the change must be to the advantage of the party at large.

indist be to the divantage of the party ablarge.

"If Congress and the Executive shall go forward in their duty, sobered and inited by this warning, and prove themselves and their party worthy of the public trust, the adverse yote of Tuesday last will be of no more consequence next year than last winters's snow."

Mrs. C. J. Woolnemer, of Wortham xas, saved the life of her child by the c of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"One of my children had Croup. The case was attended by our physician and was supposed to be well inder control. One digits I was startled by the child's hard bradding and on going to it found it stranging. It had nearly ceased to breather Realizing that the child's alarming condition that become possible in spits of the medicines given. I reasoned that such remedies would be of no avail. Hawing part of a botte of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, I gave the child three dases, at short intervals, and analously waited results. From the moment the Pectoral was given the child's breathing given easier, and, in a short time, she was sleeping quietly and breathing naturally. The child is after and well to day, and I do not be distinct to say that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral sayud her life."

In pruning, all saw cuts should be nade just so close to the trunk or to : side branch as to leave no dead projec ion, but not so close as to cause a stop page of the ascending sap through dry ing of the wood laid bare by the cut Yet another common fault is that o letting large wounds remain exposed t the drying winter winds without any protection of varmish or paint There nothing better or easier to apply tha commod gas tar for covering suc first heated to boiling to thicken it

CORN cobs rank first among the fuel for producing potash. They are too valuable to be thrown away, and should be used as fuel in a manner to perior of saving the aslies. Every portion of the corn plant is useful, and the col is as valuable as some other portions owing to the large proportion of potash Now that the hogs are being fed for winter, and will soon be strengthened give them plenty of corn. A good hog for every five pounds of grain consumed provided it is also allowed a variety WHEN manure is fermented in the TRY THE CURE HAY-FEVER

neap, or "rotted," it is not only reduced in bulk, and rendered fine, but the heating process destroys the vitality of le-sening the possibility of weeds next season To destroy the seeds, however the heap must reach a high temperatur and every portion of the heap must b treated alike This is an important work in winter. To get the manure i proper condition without loss of gaseou matter is one that requires knowledge BFFORE the snow comes have drains cream by the gravity system the milk under the cream is verrich and fat. Do you think there is any profit in hauling your wheat to town and selling it at the present low prices, and then buying bran and hauling it home to Wheat itself is a good stock feed, and if there is any profit in using it tha way do not let any prejudice against WHEN you put your cabbage away for winter do not bury the heads Put them in rows, closely packed together oots in the ground and the heads out Cover the heads with straw, lay some boards over the straw, and you wil have cabbage until the weather becomes warm in the spring The stalks will then give you an abundance of sprouts, Try cabbages in that manner if you THE fields that have not been plowed and which are covered with dead weeds will be found the harboring places of insects and will also stock the farm with weeds next season. Go over such fields with the horse rake and then burn the rubbish By so doing the in-Wood ashes should be kept perfectly dry, which renders them easier of disribution than when damp. They may be used at this season, or early in the spring, on strawberries On light soils spring is preferred. They contain evert a chemical influence on the soil Ir does not pay to allow hens to sit and hatch broods of chicks at this season, as it is a most impossible to raise the chicks without bestowing more care than they are worth Those who make a specialty of raising chicks in winter use incubators and brooders, having brooder houses arranged for that purpose, the large number hatched in that manner rendering it profitable to bestow the necessary labor in that direction. WHENELLR a farmer gets a labor-

saving implement for himself, let him think if something to save his wife from kitchen work cannot also be secured

LEADING breeders of the mutton producing breeds of sheep claim that mutton can be produced at less cost than any other meat and some of them, who formerly made wool a specialty, express themselves as having made a great mistake in the past in keeping sheep for wool rather than mutton. Wool is only a product of the sheep, and is really the least profitable compared with the value of mutton and lamb cews to stay out in the pasture now that the nights are growing chilly. They are apt to get pretty cold, and this caus a direct shrinkage in their milk. Avoid all sudden changes of temperature, exposure to storms, etc., if you wish to maintain a full flow of milk. Every stock grower knows the importance of starting the young animal off in good shape. But we are sorry to say that there are yet some who do not go quite to the bottom of things, and begin by giving it a good sire That is the most important part of all, for without it good feed and good care are only half effective. The familiers of this country annually use 35,000 tons of twine upon the self-binding harvesters, equal to a string long enough to go more than six times around the earth. It is impossible in the growing of live stock to formulate any set of rules that will surely pave the way to success Much depends on the man-more, perhaps, than any other factor But there are some things that, with the right man, go a long way to insure success. One of these things is the furnishing of every head of young stock with good sire. One running a dairy farm can have other sources of profit beade butter and pigs, for his manure will enable him to enrich his best and so as to grow heavy crops of such things as his market calls for and as will give the best Before going into winter quarters make an estimate of the food on hand, and keep only sufficient stock to consume it. JUST THINK OF THIS

Ir is not a good plan to permit the

Fifteen Thousand Dollars

Seems like a large sum for one firm to have invested in readymade Clothing in Gettysburg.

It is true, nevertheless, and as the senior member of the firm wishes to withdraw and that they may turn this into good hard cash, Stine & Son are selling their entire stock off at cost.

Just step in and examine goods and learn prices.
